The Station You Grew Up With

Mark Marek, host of both Dutch Trader and Coal Region Connections on AM 1410 WLSH, published a book in February last year. The book details the entire history of WLSH since it was an idea dreamed up by Miners Broadcasting. Mark put a tremendous amount of work into this book. He did all of the research and even recruited the help of the listeners to put this together. You can find the book on Amazon by searching “The Station You Grew Up With.”

If you are interested in local history be sure to listen to Mark’s Coal Region Connections every Saturday at 10. The show immediately follows the Dutch Trader. Every weekend Mark takes his listeners on a trip down memory lane to talk about the history of our area. You can even call in to share a memory of your own. Recall, Remember, Reminisce!
